

From Godey's Lady's Book for April. CHRIST'S MOTHER.

BY S. P. WILLIS.

"The boy was sad but fair.
The marvels of his birth were strange to hear
And, to regard his gentle face, and speak Some fond word of him to his youthful mother,

Stayed, morn and eve, the humble Nazarene Who passed by Mary's door but thoughtfully
She listened to their praises, that so wide Of her own knowledge fell, and let her heart Look, with its answer, up to God. And day Followed on day, like any childhood's passing:

And silently sat Mary at her wheel,
And watched the boy Messiah as she spun;
And as a human child unto his mother 'Subject' the while, he did her low-voiced tiding--

Or gently came to lean upon her knee,
And ask her of the thoughts that in him stirred

Dimly as yet--or, with effusions sweet Tell, murm'ring, of his weariness--and there,
All fearful-heard (as a human mother Unutterably fond while touched with awe.)
She paused, or with a tremulous hand spun on--

The blessing that her lips instinctive gave,
Asked of him with an instant thought again.

And when they "went up to Jerusalem, After the custom of the Feast," and there
"Fulfilled the days," and, back to Nazareth Went a day's journey, and sought Jesus then Among their kinsfolk who had gone before,
And found him not--the mother's heart of Mary

Well knew, that, whosoever strayed the child,
He could not go by angels unattended;
But therefore was her tenderness untroubled?

—No!

Though in her memory lay Gabriel's words, Brought her on wings at God's own throne unfolds:

Though, in rapt speech, Anna the prophetess Had named him the Redeemer, newly born,
And Simeon, forbidden to see death

Till he had seen the Christ, had taken Him Into his arms and prayed that he might now Depart in peace--though of the song "they" sang,

(That thou, who, while the glory of the Lord Shone round about, told of His birth, by night, Unto the shepherds as they watched) she knew

The theme was a salvation unfulfilled,
To him the savior given, and yet to do-- Still was the child she loved gone from her now,

And Mary "sought him sorrowing."

And who "Kept all His sayings in his heart," but Mary?

It was not with unnatural brightness beaming
From the fair forehead of the boy, nor yet
By revelations from his infant lips Too wondrous to deny, that Jesus first Gave out the dawn of the Messiah born Breaking within His thought. With wisdom only,

Teach'd by the child's simplicity, so oft, Revered than Sage's lore, and outward pressed By the divinity half-conscious now, He gazed in the temple and amazed

The elders, sitting in their midst, but none,
In these first teachings, saw the Son of God,
And he went back to Nazareth, a child-- Unthought by the disputing priests again,
And his strange words forgotten but by Mary,
Who "KEPT THEM IN HER HEART."

Oh, not alone
In his pure teachings, and in Calvary's woe, Lay the blent errand of the Saviour here!
His walk thro' life's dark pathway gave yet more,

Distant from God to infinitely far Was human weakness, till he came to bear,
With us, our weaknesses, awhile that fear Had heard Jehovah's voice in thunder only, And worshipped trembling. God is nearer now.

At his right hand sits One who was a child, Born as the humblest--and who here abode, Till of our sorrows He had suffered all.
They who now weep, remember that He wept,

The tempted, the despaired, the sorrowing feel
That Jesus, too, drank of these cups of woe,
And oh, if our joys He tasted less-- If all but one passed from his lips away-- That one--a mother's love--by His partake-
ing,

Is like a thread of heaven spun through our life,
And we--in the untiring watch, the tears,
The tenderness and fond trust of a mother-- May feel a heavenly closeness unto God.
For such, all human in its best excess,
Was Mary's LOVE FOR JESUS.

Too bad--A Boston paper is informed upon what it vouches as good authority that in that city "a religious society, a great portion of whose wealth consists in real estate, has been, and is now, in the habit of renting their buildings to an individual who appropriates them to purposes too fondish for record. The rent of these buildings is taken to pay the minister."

Be honest and frugal.

PAINTING.

THE undersigned would respectfully inform the public generally, that he will devote his entire attention to House, Sign Painting, Glazing and Paper-hanging, assuring them of good work at reasonable prices.
Thankful for past patronage, solicits a continuance of the same.

To Shippers.
I would take this opportunity to return my thanks to the Shippers of this and adjoining counties, for the very liberal support I received during the past season, and to inform them that in addition to the ware-houses I used last year, I have finished my three story brick ware-house adjoining Crocker's Hotel, and have also rented another situated at the upper landing, (lately occupied by Louis Ro-biou, Esq.) for storing Hemp and Tobacco, and would solicit consignments of Produce and of Music and Drawing; Miss L. C. LELAND, Assistant in the Female Department; Miss J.

E. HAMILTON, teacher of French.

Howard High School having been in successful operation four years, needs no recommendation from the Board of Trustees. Its character is established.

Miss C. S. WHITE, teacher of Music, Painting and Drawing, has given our students, and fully sustained the reputation of the department. We can confidently recommend her to the public as well qualified for her station.

Young Ladies desiring to study the ornamental branches, will find Miss White a skillful and accomplished teacher.

All persons desiring to attend the School are urged to be present at the beginning of the session.

We bespeak for the School a continuance of that patronage which has been so liberally extended to it heretofore.
